

Stations should not be forced to air political material right before an election, particularly if they are not airing the opposing point of view at the same time. I am very concerned about the situation in America where large companies are controlling the airwaves.

I also am very concerned about strengthening media ownership rules. Newscasters and producers should not be so controlled by the mega corporation owners! We as the public need to be assured that we are truly receiving balanced news.